MarEng project

Web-based Maritime English Learning Tool (MarEng) is a transnational project that aims to promote the maritime English language competences of those working in various maritime professions in Europe. The objective of MarEng is to produce an innovative maritime English learning tool, which will be available on the Internet. MarEng is partially financed by the E.U. Leonardo da Vinci programme. The project began in October 2004 and ends in March 2007. MarEng brings together 15 partners from five EU Member States, namely Belgium, Finland, Latvia, Poland and Spain. The group of partners consists of a wide variety of maritime institutions. Those involved in the project are education and maritime experts such as English lecturers and teachers, researchers, training managers, seafaring professional and representatives of the maritime industries.
